

University Center Excellence in Teaching Award Winner Announced

SIOUX FALLS, SD – May 2, 2011 – University Center announces the selection of Nicole Graves as the winner of its 2011 Excellence in Teaching Award.

The Excellence in Teaching Award is given to recognize individual faculty members for high quality teaching and outstanding dedication to student learning in the unique and diverse learning environment of University Center. Instructors are nominated for the award by one or more of their students at University Center.

Graves is an SDSU faculty member; she teaches courses in Human Development & Family Studies. She has 13 years of teaching experience, and has taught at University Center for 3 years.

About University Center

South Dakota Public Universities & Research Center, or University Center, provides the greater Sioux Falls community with convenient local access to public higher education programs from in-state partner Universities. University Center offers programs from the University of South Dakota, South Dakota State University, Dakota State University, Northern State University and Black Hills State University and served nearly 3,500 students this past year. At University Center the focus is on the adult learner and academic programs and courses that foster and support the economic development of the Sioux Falls area.

Contact

Jennie Doyen
605-367-5382

Jennie.Doyen@SDUniversityCenter.org