University Center Announces New Hires

SIoux FALLS, SD – August 25, 2008 – University Center welcomes two new employees to their staff.

Jason Madsen joins University Center as an Academic Advisor. Madsen will serve as a resource for future and current students, assisting with course selection, scheduling, and planning a program of study.

After working for the past year as a graduate student intern, Jennifer Schelske now joins University Center full time as Student Services Coordinator. Schelske will manage services for students including tutoring and disability services. She will also assist prospective graduate students with the admission process.

About University Center

South Dakota Public Universities & Research Center, or University Center, provides the greater Sioux Falls community with convenient local access to public higher education programs from in-state partner Universities. University Center offers programs from the University of South Dakota, South Dakota State University, Dakota State University, Northern State University and Black Hills State University. At University Center the focus is on the adult learner and academic programs and courses that foster and support the economic development of the Sioux Falls area. Over the course of a year 3,500 students take classes at University Center and the campus is home to more than 60 degree programs.
